Best University in this Town

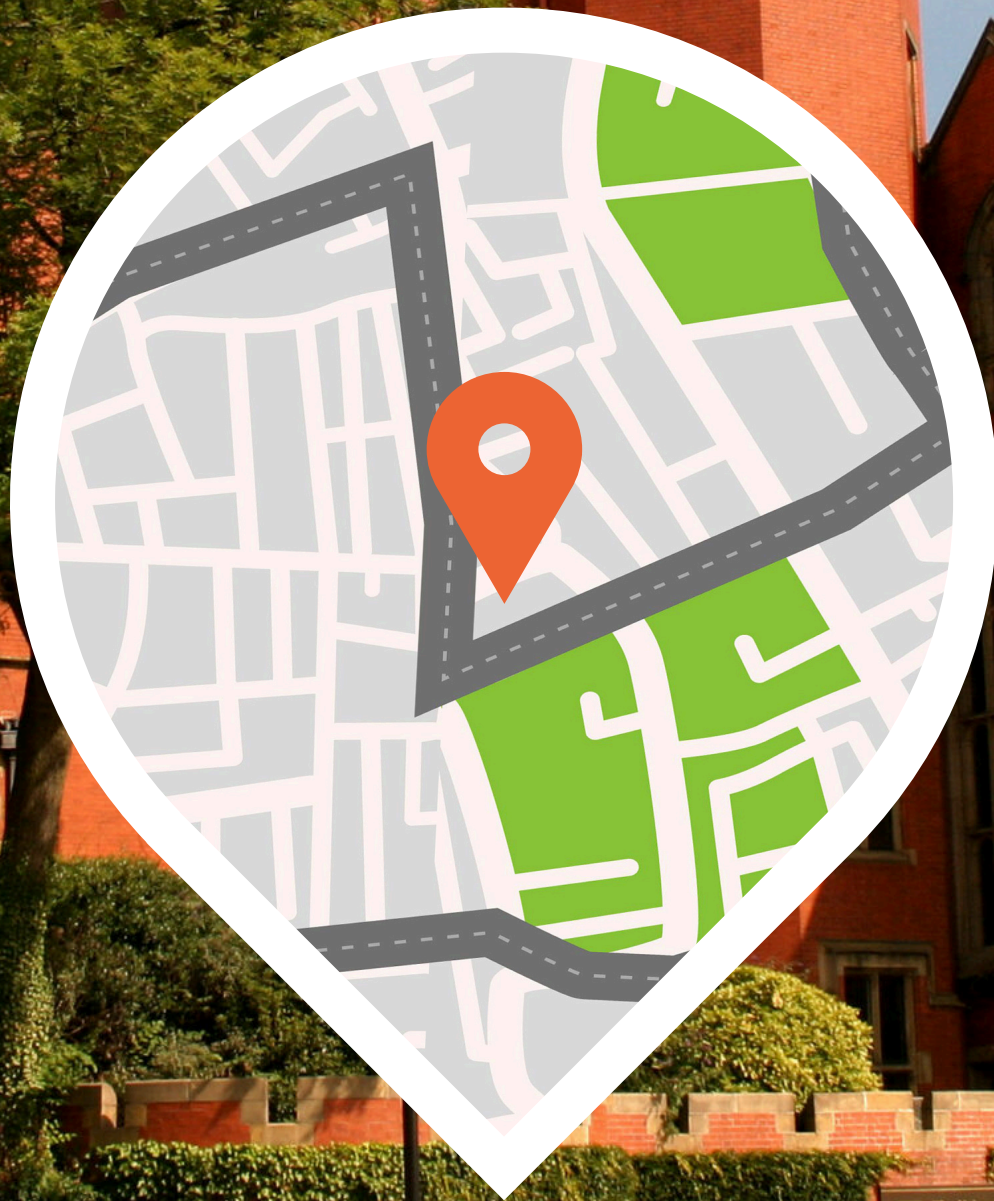

A world-class university – a unique student experience. Sheffield is a research university with a global reputation for excellence. We're a member of the Russell Group: one of the 24 leading UK universities for research and teaching. The best students' union in the UK. Hundreds of student societies. A special city with a strong sense of community, right on the edge of the Peak District national park. And a network of support services to make sure you're happy, healthy and secure. At Sheffield, we make an impact. Our ideas and expertise make a real difference to communities, policy, our partners and wider society. We're tackling social, environmental and economic challenges through ambitious thinking, collaborative working and world-leading research. We have been awarded five Queen's Anniversary Prizes, an award given to recognise outstanding contributions to the nation.
